The usual atmosphere of expectancy and excitement prevailed at the Annual Alumni Banquet held in the University dining room on the evening of June 2. Nearly one hundred people, including graduates, alumni, and guests, gathered around the beautifully decorated tables to renew old acquaintances and to enjoy new friends.

Yellow spring flowers used as centerpieces, and imitation June bugs placed appropriately on the tables suggested the season of the year and the room was lighted by a generous supply of yellow candles, which were also a part of the table decorations.

Lamar Modert '50, executive secretary of the association, introduced the toastmaster, Ian Hay '50, who contributed greatly toward an enjoyable evening. Joel Kettenring responded gratefully to the welcome extended by the toastmaster to the 36 seniors who were the honored guests of the evening. A piano solo was offered by Della Huck Napier '50, and Misses Lois Weyhe '50 and Lou Rouch sang "Love Divine." A reading by Rebecca Craig, student guest, added a touch of humor to the program.

Rev. Ray Hargraves, of Spring City, brought a challenging message in which he emphasized the serious need for Christian education during this time of world-wide spiritual hunger.

Hearts were stirred at the Annual Alumni Banquet on June 2 as Fallie Ruth Mahr '48, treasurer of the association, presented President Judson Rudd with a giant-sized check for $1,635.67 as a gift from the association for the purchase of 66 steel doors. President Rudd expressed his deep gratitude for the rallying of the alumni to the urgent need of their Alma Mater.

Coming from out of town to attend the Banquet were Frank Brill '50, Robert Smith ex '51, Mr. ex '50, and Mrs. Orion Cook, Mary (Rogers) ex '56, and John Mims, Wayne Snider '50, Hugh Coombs '50, Leona Bell ex '52, Beatrice Morgan '45, Dorothy (Morgan) Crote '45, Mary McPherson Griffin '38, Mabel (Arnold) Walker '40, Ruth '47, and Clyde '49 Simmons, Lois Shane ex '54, Ben Crump '50, and Emily Phillips '50.

Other alumni attending the banquet were directly connected with the staff or the student body. Guests of the alumni also enjoyed the occasion.

"I suppose you have heard I was sent out to our Navajo Mission to be the teacher of our new Indian school to open this fall.

"The Navajos are very interesting with their colorful dress and silver and turquoise ornaments, but they are so ignorant of the Lord and His grace.

"Pray that we may be used of Him here to win them for His own.

"May the Lord continue to bless you in His work there. If any of you are out West, stop to see us. Company is a real treat out here."

(Angie received her Master of Religious Education degree from Grace Seminary this year.)

The April issue of "Christian Missions, Inc." carried a picture of Roger Bacon '50, as he was leaving New York aboard the "S.S. Foria," and a letter written by him from Algeria.

"After a wet, rough trip through New York to Liston, and a clear, cold trip from Lisbon to Casablanca, I changed to the SS Cote du Nord, which was at Casablanca the same time we were, and which was going directly to Alger.

Don't forget her. Lift her up before God and ask things of Him for her. How wonderful are the blessings He has given us. Oh, that she too knew and trusted the Lord our God of grace and mercy and power. He would meet her every need and fill her troubled heart with joy. He would prepare a home for her and enfold her in His love. May God use us to meet her need."

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

The following letter from Lester E. Pifer ex'46, pastor of the Grace Brethren Church of Fremont, Ohio, should challenge each alumnus to take advantage of every opportunity to be of help to his Alma Mater.

"Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

"I have just received the letter from the Alumni Association with the list of new students for this coming year. I note under the State of Ohio that there are six or eight within the sound of our radio program. I am writing a personal letter to each one of these prospects telling them of my experience at Bryan and volunteering to talk with them or answer any questions that they may have in regard to the school. I feel that this would be a real help to a student who is interested in attending a new school. I will include in the letter a picture of the quartet that sings on the program and also my picture which is a part of the advertising that we use on the program. This may help to acquaint the prospects with the kind of material Bryan University puts out.

"I am always happy to receive the "Newsettes" and to hear from Bryan in one way or the other. Certainly we praise the Lord for the progress that has been made during the past year, numerically and physically. We have quite a number of students who will be interested in college in the next few years. You can be sure that we will speak a good word for Bryan.

"P. S. Give our regards to all the folks there at Bryan and we wish you a very happy new school year in the Lord Jesus."

"Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for us, . . . ."

Titus 2:13
Louisville, Kentucky.

"It was good to get the alumni paper and catch up on the news. I wonder if you know that a member of the first graduating class, Franklin H. Bennett, is now preaching for the Christian Church at Ronceverte, West Va., and is a trustee for the College of the Scriptures? I wonder also if you know that Mona Finnell ex '36 is married to James Owen of New York City and has four girls? She and her husband are now in North Carolina where he is training as a reserve officer in the marine corps. Harold Tadlock ex '35 is one of the editors of the largest free circulation weekly newspaper in the northwest, the 'Minneapolis Free Press.' I have been pleased to have contact with other Bryan folks in the Louisville area by phone or by mail.

"We are now closing our sixth year as president of the College of the Scriptures. We are also pleased to announce a new text book, 'Class Notes on Acts,' which I have written and which will be published this summer. A companion volume will be 'A New Commentary on Acts' by Professor Edsil Dale of Cincinnati Bible Seminary. I am planning to send your library an autographed copy when it comes off the press."

Mary Rogers Mims ex '46, Birmingham, Alabama.

"John and I would like to have a door—just any door will be all right. I tried to decide which door I'd choose if choice were given me—prayer room? class room? dining room? dorm room? Each closes in so many wonderful experiences; closes out so much of the commonplace and confusion, that any Bryan door offers entrance to rich experiences. I wish we could buy a room, a floor, a wing, but castles in the air belong to dreams for the future. For the present—just a door, please. Our check is enclosed, which will, we hope, cover hinges, knobs, tacks, and tax.

"We look forward to seeing all you folks at Bryan. Six years will certainly make a difference in my home-coming."

Margaret Lowe ex '41, Orlando, Florida.

"I've seen a number of former Bryants recently, and it's always like a family reunion. I see Ruth Ella Williams and Ruth Clement, as well as Miss Dorothy Hill at the Dubose Bible classes on Friday night. I also see Homer Wright ex '43 occasionally as I carry my automobile insurance with him. He, incidentally, has his own agency here now.

"I'm to be at John Hopkins again this summer, and I'm wondering if there are any Bryants in the Baltimore area. If so, I'd surely appreciate knowing it. I was there most of last summer, and didn't know a soul within hundreds of miles. I plan to drive up this year and want to come home by way of Tennessee...and Bryan."

Bethel Smith Sawyer ex '45, Fairmount, Indiana.

"We have been very, very busy trying to locate about two thousand people who will be here in Fairmount for the General Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

"Enclosed is a little gift. I think much of Bryan."

Mrs. Lucile Haskins Merrell ex '36, Lenoir City, Tennessee, is planning to attend Tennessee Wesleyan College, Athens, Tennessee.
